

Bachelor's Program in Global Issues

What can you learn ?

You can learn about the literacy in global issues, which means that you can learn what global issues are and how you can resolve them from the perspectives of “Environment” and “Human”.

Environment fields are divided into “Earth Environment” and “Risk and Security” issues. On the other hand, the “Human” fields are divided into “Human Health” and “Social Diversity and Inclusiveness” issues.

You will acquire knowledge on these four issues comprehensively and can develop specialties with your own interests.
